The page is titled "TravelBook Registration" and features the Allianz Partners logo. The main heading is "Register here for the Lawlink TravelBook". Below this, a sub-heading states: "TravelBook enables you to book your travel insurance for business and/or leisure travel." The registration form is divided into two columns: "TravelBook Registration" and "Your Details". The "Your Details" section contains the following fields: Title (dropdown menu), First name (text input), Last name (text input), Date of birth (calendar icon), Home address (text input with a red 'x' error icon and a link to "Click here to manually enter it."), Contact number (text input), Company email address (text input), Select a password (password input with a strength indicator), and Confirm password (password input). A purple "REGISTER NOW" button is located at the bottom of the form.

Fill in your details. Once Registration is complete, the following screen will appear.

After logging in, you can select the type of travel insurance you want. For additional information regarding the insurance, click on the three vertical lines next to the Logout button.

Please note the following regarding payment for your travel insurance:

Business Travel Only – these days will be charged to Lawlink and the employee issuing the policy will not pay for anything at the time of purchasing the policy.

Leisure Travel Only – payment for these leisure days will be required at time of booking and collected by credit card at the time of purchasing the policy

Business & Leisure – this is when the trip is a mix of business travel and leisure travel. The traveller will only be charged for the leisure days and then Allianz will issue an invoice to collect the business day portion from Lawlink.

Select the type of insurance you require and complete the form as directed.

When entering your requirements, be sure to select the Lawlink firm you work for (firms are listed alphabetically and the default is Anderson Lloyd). The personal information you have entered at Registration flows through to the form.
